LEGISLATIVE JURISDICTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES

The jurisdiction of the Committee on Financial Services is set forth in clause 1(g) of Rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives as follows:

RULE X—ORGANIZATION OF COMMITTEES

Committees and their legislative jurisdictions

1. There shall be in the House the following standing committees, each of which shall have the jurisdiction and related functions assigned by this clause and clauses 2, 3, and 4. All bills, resolutions, and other matters relating to subjects within the jurisdiction of the standing committees listed in this clause shall be referred to those committees, in accordance with clause 2 of rule XII, as follows:

(g) Committee on Financial Services.

- (1) Banks and banking, including deposit insurance and Federal monetary policy.

- (8) Public and private housing.
- (9) Securities and exchanges.
- (10) Urban development.

ENUMERATION OF SPECIFIC SUBJECTS

The committee jurisdiction as set forth in rule X is of necessity listed in general terms. An enumeration of specific subjects contained in bills referred to, or acted upon by, the committee in the past will give a better understanding of the subject matters coming within the jurisdiction of the committee. The following enumeration is not intended to be all inclusive but merely attempts to list the subjects generally. In this respect, the National Bank Act, Federal Reserve Act, Defense Production Act, Banking Acts of 1933 and 1935, National Housing Act, U.S. Housing Act of 1937, several sections of the Revised Statutes and other acts, all within the jurisdiction of the committee, contain a great number of provisions which are not separately enumerated. The purpose here is not to summarize the provision of statutes emanating from the committee, nor to include the subject matter of all bills referred to the committee over the years, but only to illustrate in a more specific manner than does rule X the different subjects within the committee's jurisdiction.

The enumeration follows:
